search for his son but found no trace. He suspected that his son might have been murdered and the body has been made to disappear.

It also alleged by the complainant Mr. Chhote Lal that he filed a complaint before the Police Station (Churaibari) but no case has been registered and no action has been taken. He therefore prayed for justice so that a case is registered and investigation is made about missing of his son.

Cognizance is taken on the basis of the complaint and we direct to issue a notice to O/C Churaibari PS to submit his response in writing in respect of allegations made in the complainant.

A Copy of the complaint also may be sent to the Superintendent of Police, North Tripura to inquire into the allegations and to submit the report before the next date.

List it on 18/06/2024
