Complaint No. 81 of 2024

In connection with death of convict prisoner,
Dilip Debbarama

ORDER SHEET

Sl.No.	DATE	ORDER	NOTE
09	27.02.25	Today one Uttam Debbarma S/O Lt. Balaram Debbarma of Bishukumar Para, Sangkumabari appears claiming to be the father-in-law of the deceased Dilip Debbarma. He has also claimed that Dilip Debbarma is the other name of Bishurai Debbarma, S/O Lt. Sukucharan Debbarma of Champak Nagar having date of birth on 01.01.1985. He has submitted a petition stating inter alia that his daughter Durpti Debbarma is the wife of said Dilip Debbarma @ Bishurai Debbarma and his daughter gave birth of four children through said Bishurai @ Dilip Debbarma. He also claimed that said Bishurai Debbarma @ Dilip Debbarma was a convict prisoner undergoing imprisonment at Kendriya Sansodhanagar, Bishalgarh and for long 8 years he was denied parole and as such he committed suicide. He desires to give his statement on oath. Accordingly, this Commission has recorded his statement. His statements have been read over and explained to him by appointing an interpreter namely: Sri Bikash Debbarma, Group-D, THRC and Sri Uttam Debbarma being satisfied has signed in the deposition.

In the document of I.G. Prisons it is nowhere stated that Dilip Debbarma and Bishurai Debbarama are the name of a same person. No Aadhaar Card of Dilip Debbaram was submitted by the I.G. Prisons. This being the position a confusion arises whether Dilip Debbarma is the another name of Bishurai Debbarma as claimed by Uttam Debbarma. It is also not clear whether Durpati Debbarma is the wife of Dilip Debbarma and Sri Budhu Charan Debbarma, Bijoy Debbarama, Ashok Debbarma and Tasmi Debbarma are the children of Dilip Debbarma.

So, the Commission considers it appropriate to direct the Investigation Wing of this Commission to have a detailed inquiry as to this fact. The Investigation Wing is further asked to let this Commission know about the expected income of Dilip Debbarma. The report shall be submitted by the next date and let this case be fixed after 30 days.

List it on 01/04/2025
